Dearest Lare Heart: ——

Received your darling letter of Monday this afternoon and was happy to read what you have done, as yet picked out the rooms, for in case you want me to delay my trip, I'd feel easier knowing that the rent is not running on somewhere for rooms not in use. It sure is a good thing that Uncle Morris went with you, as a kitchen without a sink is more than none at all. It would be terribly hard on me to drain the water from a bath room & then I would have to carry it back to empty it. I am very, very much surprised to hear that Memphis is so out of date and behind times. Believe me, New York can't be beat when it comes to building and fitting up houses. It's the best you can, don't take anyold thing as there is still plenty of time, it won't take you long to get the things to furnish the rooms with. I do not understand this part of your letter — you would have to get water from the bath room etc., so I began seeing that we could not afford 2 rooms; so I let it go."

Uncle Morris sure is a bird. To offer us his grand is dandy of him. When I come down I'll show him how much we appreciate his goodness. We hope he can do same thing for Mom, soon.

Well, honey, we left off yesterday. Mom, Pop, Sadie, Edna & myself saw her off. Tears & sighs all around. It was terrible. I was so broken up, that I went to bed at 7.30 last night. Feel much better to-day. While there, I inquired about my baggage at the baggage room. A case is acceptable if it is bound or rather roped up. They allow "two #". So I guess it will be alright in this way sure.

[illegible] what we to delay my trip,
[illegible] that the rent is not running, we haven't there for rooms not in use. It sure is a good thing that Uncle Morris wasn't into Jan, as a kitchen without a sink is worse than none at all.

Uncle Morris sure is a brick. To offer us his room is handy of him. When I come down I'll show him how Henery & Keller are going to have their tonsils removed to-day. I have been up twice so far to-day, and ran up last night to see them. I will run up about it again, as by that time they will be all over with the operation. They will in all probabilities go home to-morrow afternoon. They do not allow visiting in the ~~afternoon~~ evening ~~for~~ to the children's ward, but I arranged with the nurse to have Rose, and Tanto Rosie see them to-night. In the meanwhile, I got them some ~~oranges~~ and pads and they are having a time back up there. Both will feel much better when they are over it, as they both are continually suffering from colds & sore ~~throats~~ because of their enlarged tonsils.

I had ~~a~~ long talk, with all my hugs and kisses, and—how much talk would you like to have to-day? Only a tiny little bit? Alright then I am sending you just a wee bit.

As ever
Lovingly, Frances.

Did you get that review card, honey? I do hope so. Am so happy to know your tummy is better, & be sure to take care of yourself - hear?
